

Adverbial phrase practice!

Underline the adverbial phrases in the sentences below.

(Remember- a phrase does NOT contain a verb (process) and begins with a preposition – over, to for, in, into, with, at, through beyond, beside, along, across, during) Adverbial phrases add meaning to the verbs (processes) and are usually near the verbs. These phrases tell how, when, where or why the action is done.

- (a) The boys had worked for many weeks with great diligence.
- (b) In extreme haste the lifesavers manned the surf-boat.
- (c) Along the street with measured tread marched the young cadets.
- (d) At a dangerous speed the thieves drove the stolen car through the thick traffic.
- (e) Beyond the hills the sun set, throwing its red glory across the western sky.
- (f) The boys dived into the lake and swam vigorously for the opposite shore.
- (g) Over the fence and into our neighbour's garden went the ball.
- (h) Beside the stream grew many wild flowers.
- (i) During the holidays, we went to the beach frequently.
- (j) We travelled by car to the mountains on Saturday.