

Rewrite each of these by yourself. Include all missing punctuation!!! Remember the rule- a new speaker MUST begin a new line!! for a moment we were silent and then the skipper spoke whats your name he asked you've a future if you learn to catch and punt well smiths my name said the young fellow after five year old freddys first week at the kindergarten he was asked how he liked going to school its all right going he answered but I don't like it much when im there have you ever read this book peter asked james on the way to school no said james who wrote it ivan southall I think peter replied what is it about it is about a family which is caught in a bushfire